

USB Driver (SMJUSB.sys)

Version No.: 4.0.0.0

OS: Windows 2000, Xp, Vista, Vista64

Usage: This is a USB Vendor Class Driver. After Installation, this will allocate TCP series to the Virtual Com Port on Windows PC.

How to Install: When TCP300II/TCP400 series is connected to PC via USB cable, Driver is requested from Windows OS. In this case, please designate below location for the Driver to be installed.

- USB Driver Folder in CD
- USB Driver Folder after downloaded from Web Site and extracted

USB Remover (Cleanup.exe)

Version No.: 1.0.0

OS: Windows 2000, Xp

Usage: This is to be used when the Registry Data of above mentioned USB Driver wanted to be deleted.

How to Use: Execute "Cleanup.exe".

When execution, please make sure TCP300II/400 series connected to PC is surely powered off. (if powered on, Error will be indicated).

Also, please be careful that this Utility may deleted the registry data of other USB devices connected to the PC. In such case happened, please reinstall the drivers of other USB devices.

Note) In case of Vista, "Cleanup.exe" do not work. Therefore please follow below instruction to delete.

1. Right Click "Computer" to choose "Control"
2. Choose "Device Manager"
3. Right Click "SMJ USB Device(COM*)" and choose "Delete" in "Port (COM & LPT)".
4. Restart Windows.

End of Document